▪ Part 3 ▪

Questions 16 – 20

Every month our school magazine talks to people about their jobs. This month two bus drivers tell us about their work.

Read the article and answer questions 16 - 20.

Mark the answers a, b, c or d on your answer sheet.

The School Magazine

Driver A

Well, the pay is good but not great. Of course you must have a special driver's license which is about four times more expensive than a normal driver's license and more difficult to get. You must also learn different parts of the bus if you want to pass the driving test.

And, believe it or not, you must be able to park the bus beside another bus in the station. Now that is difficult!

Driver B

I've been doing the job for nearly 20 years. It can be one of the most enjoyable jobs because you are helping people to and from their jobs, important appointments and shopping. It can also be a difficult job because people get angry if the bus is late, children often cry and scream on the bus, some people refuse to pay the fare. A bus driver must pay attention to the road of course. Yesterday a man walked in front of my bus and didn't see me because he was talking on his mobile phone.

16 Why does driver B like his job?

- a) He likes shopping.
- b) He thinks people are nice.
- c) He likes helping people.
- d) He has been doing it for nearly 20 years.

17 What does driver A say about getting a driver's licence?

- a) It is not expensive.
- b) It is only for bus drivers.
- c) It costs a lot more than any other driving licence.
- d) It is less difficult for him.
